Shucra Victor-Cameron is the owner of Intentional Teaching Consulting Services. Our mission is to transform early childcare professional practice through intentional teaching by building on evidence-based exemplary strategies. Shucra is also a Doctoral Candidate investigating the efficacy of the school readiness program and the training being used, called TS GOLD®. Shucra coaches and trains early childhood professionals across the country to help improve teaching and learning and to raise student outcomes. Shucra is also a teacher at Broward County Public Schools.

Furthermore, Shucra has 10 years' experience as an early childhood professional, which provided her with a great deal of knowledge and first-hand experience. She supported her region with the implementation of school-based interventions such as The Creative Curriculum®, Teaching Strategies GOLD®, Conscious Discipline®, and CLASS® to ensure children's needs were being met. Shucra's role as an educator is to bring a leadership development approach to the state of Florida to ensure all children are provided with high quality early learning education to leverage their school readiness success.

Shucra will focus on serving student-athletes in the following areas:

Specialties:

- College Application Support
- Reading & Writing tutor (including Advanced Placement & ACT)
- Community Service Hours.
